

♦ The Letter Fa ?

Tower of Power

Arabic has no letter "P." The Hebrew Peh accords with the Arabic Fa (F).

In Hebrew Peh means "mouth". It corresponds with the Tower Tarot Card.

One of the most important energy channels in spiritual work is called the Middle Pillar.

The middle Pillar runs from the crown of the head to the feet. Along the path five important "gates" are formed: Spirit (crown), Air (throat), Fire (heart), Water (sex center) and Earth (feet).

Allah is the Light
of the heavens and the earth.
A metaphor of His Light is as if there were a Pillar and within it a Lamp.
The Lamp is enclosed in Glass.
The Glass is, as it were,
a Radiant Star lit from a Blessed Tree, an Olive,
neither of the East nor of the West
Whose oil is almost luminous
though Fire barely touched it.
Light upon Light.
Allah guides whom He wills to
His light and Allah strikes out
metaphors for the people,
and Allah knows all things.
(Lit is such a Light) in Houses

that Allah has permitted to be raised. In them is He glorified in the morning and
the evening.

-- Quran 24:34-35

The Light is the Kundalini light. The Pillar is the Middle (not eastern or western) Pillar. The Lamp represents the glands, especially the pineal. The Glass represents the Chakras.

The Blessed Olive Tree is the Tree of Life. The Oil represents the glandular secretions.

Light atop Light refers to the five "gates" of energy.

The Houses Allah has permitted to be raised refers to people who have reincarnated to do spiritual work (avatars).

The Quran also refers to the Middle Pillar as Siraat al-mustaqiym (upright or straight path).

In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate,
the merciful.

The praise is for Allah,
Master-Teacher [Rabbi] of the Ages.
The Compassionate, the Merciful,
Master of the Day of Judgement.
Only you do we serve and only
you do we ask for help.
Guide us to the Upright Path

-- Quran, Surah 1:1-6

The Buddha advised his students to 'take the middle path.' Esoterically, his reference was to the Middle Pillar.

In magic work the Middle Pillar is created by imaging the various spheres and vibrating the Hebrew "God names" associated with them.

Gate God Name Color

Spirit Eherah (pronounced Eh-Heh-Yeh) White
Air Yod Heh Vaw Heh Eloheem Indigo
Fire Yod Heh Vaw Heh Eloah Ve-Daath Gold
Water Shaddai El-Cha: Blue

Earth Adenai Ha-Aretz Black

The God names and colors are used in magical rites to attract or banish things, events or characteristics.

Money, for example, falls under the Sun's auspices. A ritual for attracting money could include the Middle Pillar, circulation of Light, vibrating the Fire gate's God name and imaging your body bathed in golden light.

This rite would be most potent if done on a Sunday or any day during the hour of the Sun.

Attracting rituals are best performed during the waxing Moon. Banishing rituals are best performed during the waning Moon.

The chakras are energy fields that are formed by the crossing of opposite energy charges. Lunar energy is channelled through the Ida nadi and solar energy flows through the Pingala nadi. The Ida and Pingala begin at the left and right nostrils, respectively, and go up to the 3rd eye where they meet and cross, forming the ajna chakra. They then meet again at the crown and then criss-cross down the spine forming the various chakras.

Because of their winding paths, Kundalini is often called serpent power and is said to move according to the path of the serpent.

The Egyptians named these nadis (or chi meridians) Nekhebet (Ida) and Uatchet (Pingala).

In the Quran they appear in various ways, among them Dhul-garnain (Two named One), Safa and Marwa mountains and, in Surah 2:102, as "the two angels Harut and Marut" who were in Babylon.

Tower of Babel

Babel means "gate of god" and here we have the Spirit gate of the Middle Pillar.

In the Bible Story humans had decided to build a shem (spaceship) and had erected a launching tower for the purpose.

But every physical story has a spiritual meaning and every spiritual process has a material basis and application.

Esoterically the launching Tower is the Middle Pillar which launches one's consciousness to heaven (the Spirit Gate of Gate of God).

The Eloheem said that if humans accomplish building their shem nothing would be impossible for them to accomplish.

Shem also means "name" and, esoterically, building up the force of God names is what is meant.

Yahweh then decides to "come down" and "confuse their speech" and "scatter them across the face of the earth."

All religions have but two themes: consciousness and energy. They all are addressing these two fundamental realities, but because their speech is confused they compete and oppose one another rather than supporting one another.

Kundalini or Chi Confusion

Term Usage

Kundalini India
Ra Egyptian
Shakti India
Samson Nazarene
Holy Spirit Christian
Shekhem Egyptian
Sakiynah Arabian
Shechinah Hebrew
Baraka Arabian
Ruh Arabian
Ruach Hebrew
Serpentine Fire India
Serpent Power India
Chi China
Ki Sumerian
Libido Freudian
Orgone Reich

Many African systems use various names as do the Japanese, Koreans, Native Americans, Polynesians etc.

Since most don't even know that energy is being discussed they are totally incapable of relating their metaphor for energy to a seemingly different wisdom system.

Their speech is confused. When the energy is not focused it scatters throughout the body (earth).

The Fa/Peh letter is assigned to the Tower card and to the planet Mars.

On the card a lightning bolt strikes the tower, knocks off the crown and throws people out of it.

That refers to the sudden, frightening effect that kundalini can have. Often, the person is surprised by the swiftness of its ascent.

"Behold, I come quickly," says the Book of Revelation (all of whose 22 chapters are about kundalini).

The kundalini force can suddenly wipe out somskaras (thought/behaviour patterns). these are the "people" being tossed from the Tower. The crown is, of course, the crown chakra.

Yet the Tower is invariably described as an ominous, negative and that forecasts "ruin catastrophe, destruction."

Kundalini is psychosexual energy and its effect upon most people is regarded as negative.

Retention of semen was the sine qua non of ancient spiritual cultivation. Since kundalini energy invariably excites the sex drive -- leading to ejaculation if a man cannot domesticate that horny ram -- it was seen as catastrophe and ruinous.

Make no mistake, catching and controlling the kundalini empowered ejaculatory urge can be as difficult as "raising up the serpents unharmed" -- at least for men. I cannot say what the levels of difficulty are for women because orgasm doesn't deplete women of chi energy, menstruation does.

A female initiate can climax 50 times and the effect would be beneficial to her -- according to the old masters. So the sexual challenges are different.

Both male and female, however, learn to direct their orgasm to eventually experience whole body orgasms and even male multiple orgasm.

When the orgasm force is drawn to the head -- good golly, Miss Molly!

Delphonics sing!

Didn't I blow your mind this time,
Didn't I?

Orgasmic energy exploding in the brain, electrifying the glands, can be a mind blowing experience. It can bring a brief period of enlightenment. Such energy regularly "stored in heaven" can result in full enlightenment (awakening).

But the Tower of Power energy surge is also said to be fraught with danger. Some teachers warn of kundalini psychosis. I've even speculated that spontaneous human combustion might be due to incorrect activating the serpentine fire.

How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O
prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

Thy two breasts are like young roes
that are twins.

Thy neck is a tower of ivory;
thine eyes like fishpools of Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbin:
thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon
which looketh toward Damascus.

Thine head upon thee is like Carmel,
and the hair of thine head like purple;
the King is held in the galleries.

How fair and how pleasant art
thou, O love, for delights!

This thy stature is like a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

I said, I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of the boughs thereof:
now also thy breasts shall be as clusters
of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like
apples;

And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine
for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep
to speak.

I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us
see if the vine flourish, whether the tender
grape appear and the pomegranates bud forth:
there will I give thee my loves.

The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates
are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old,
which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

-- Song of Solomon, 7th Chapter

Old Solomon could rap, couldn't he? Actually this song is a duet between Sheba and Solomon. It's all about kundalini, chakras, endocrine secretions and altered states of consciousness.

Much ancient literature was set to music and we miss a chunk of its impact without the accompanying music. Imagine reading the Beatles catalogue but never knowing the words were sung.

The Bhagavad-Gita is the Song of the Eternal. The Psalms are David's greatest hits. The Book of the Dead is replete with hymns to Ra, Osiris, etc.

Even the Quran is musical. It is to be chanted, sung in tarteelan , "slow, measured, rhythmic tones."

The musical quality of the ancient books brought the proper altered state of consciousness, stimulated brain centers, scientifically, to generate an effect upon the central nervous system.

No music, no funk. Just dry dead letter scripture that leaves the so-called believer on the outside looking in.

In the above Song of Solomon chapter, the navel refers to the Tan Tien or Elixir Field. ("liquor").

Lilies are to mideast systems what lotuses are to mystics in India.

In sexual-spiritual female cultivation, the breasts are softly rubbed in a circular manner to release ching chi. As chi increases one of the first observable effects is upon the brightening and clearing of the eyes ("your eyes are like the fishpools").

The purple or violet ray signifies contact with the highest spiritual vibration. The color is seen quite clearly in meditation, particularly as a result of chanting Hu, Hum or Hung. ("Hair of thy head like purple.")

When the glands are stimulated a sweet, nectar-like taste fills the mouth. The Taoists consider saliva, charged with chi, to be a nectar. This, the song describes as "the roof of thy mouth like the best wine...that goeth down sweetly."

In the depths of tantric sexual experiences the woman often falls into trance and, in that state, speaks with the wisdom of the goddess, prophesying and brining goddess wisdom. (...causing the lips of those that are asleep," i.e., in trance, "to speak.")

"Let us go into the field" refers to connecting and sharing the energies of each others Tan Tiens or Elixir Fields. Thus the lovers become as one, each knowing, experiencing and feeling what the other experiences.

Mandrakes are the Magic Mushrooms, physically, the natural plant which LSD mimics. But physical mandrakes symbolize the "natural high" that comes from energy stimulation of various glands.

I learned from the Honorable Elijah Muhammad to replace bad things with good things when you want to get people away from bad habits. So when I use to help get Delaware prisoners off dope, I showed them how to get a beautiful, healthy, natural high by breathing techniques and mild kundalini activation.

As far as I know, none of my guys went back to using drugs.

But I unwittingly provoked the rage of the 12-Step Narcotics Anonymous/Boot-camp drug program monopolists. They were furious that I didn't employ their bankrupt, failed philosophy and techniques.

That 12 Step, 28 day drug program nonsense is a billion dollar industry and its ayatollahs will fight you ferociously if you refuse to spout the party line.

It's as phony as a 3 dollar bill.

Most drug programs are run by a bunch of junkies with brief cases who are running a con-game on the world. They don't get anybody off drugs and the so-called directors are on-and-off drugs themselves.

When they finally get caught stealing the money and pimping and banging all the poor junkie girls in their programs, their out is, "I'm in recovery! I need help! I'm signing myself in another drug program."

And police and politicians fall for it. As P.T. Barnum said, "There's a sucker born every minute."

Alcoholics Anonymous and Narcotics Anonymous have become religions. And, like any religion, "true believers" don't much care if it doesn't work.

AA and NA utterly fails for at least 95% of the people who fall victim to the hustle. Any other product with so spectacular rate of failure would be shut down by the government. But AA/NA enjoys, despite the harm they do to millions, as special status as state-sponsored religions.

Chapter 119 of Psalms is subdivided into 22 sections headed by the Hebrew letters. The word Peh, in Hebrew, means mouth and the Peh section of 119 Psalms says: "I opened my mouth and panted: for I longed for thy commandments."

A special yogic breathing method is here indicated. It helps ignite the fire of kundalini which then starts up the tower of the Middle Pillar.

The Spinal Twist is the Yoga posture that corresponds with the Fa.

The Middle Pillar in the Quran

Salaat is the Arabic word for Kundalini, not prayer. The Arabic word for prayer is dua.

The movements and postures (asanas) associated with salaat are actually abbreviated versions of the yoga sun salute. They coordinate breathing and, by stretching, clear the meridians and loosen the spine. All those things facilitate salaat but are not salaat itself.

Salaat is a force, an energy, that flows through the body and the universe.

The Quranic term for the Middle Pillar is salaat al-wusta.

Guard over the salaat
and the salaat al-wusta (the middle salaat), and raise up to Allah devoutly.

-- Quran 2:238

Any negative conditioning or program that's embedded in the subconscious can (and does) get activated when salaat awakens. Thus, the initiate is told to guard over her salaat, especially the salaat (kundalini) of the Middle Pillar.

Cleaning the subconscious (Ra) of all negative programs is also called, metaphorically, "the sanctification of the Virgin Mary."

negative non-physical beings can become attracted to a person's salaat force and attach themselves to one's chakras like energy vampires.

Banishing and protective (spiritual immunization) rituals like the Lesser Banishing Ritual of the Pentagram help energy workers "guard over the salaat."

Hosted by  tripod®

Check out the NEW Hotbot

Tell me when this page is updated

The Letter Fa ?

Tower of Power

Arabic has no letter "P." The Hebrew Peh accords with the Arabic Fa (F).

In Hebrew Peh means "mouth". It corresponds with the Tower Tarot Card.

One of the most important energy channels in spiritual work is called the Middle Pillar.

The middle Pillar runs from the crown of the head to the feet. Along the path five important "gates" are formed: Spirit (crown), Air (throat), Fire (heart), Water (sex center) and Earth (feet).

Allah is the Light
of the heavens and the earth.
A metaphor of His Light is
as if there were a Pillar and
within it a Lamp.
The Lamp is enclosed in Glass.
The Glass is, as it were,
a Radiant Star lit from a Blessed Tree, an Olive,
neither of the East nor of the West
Whose oil is almost luminous
though Fire barely touched it.
Light upon Light.
Allah guides whom He wills to
His light and Allah strikes out
metaphors for the people,

and Allah knows all things.
(Lit is such a Light) in Houses
that Allah has permitted to be raised. In them is He glorified in the morning and
the evening.

-- Quran 24:34-35

The Light is the Kundalini light. The Pillar is the Middle (not eastern or western) Pillar. The Lamp represents the glands, especially the pineal. The Glass represents the Chakras.

The Blessed Olive Tree is the Tree of Life. The Oil represents the glandular secretions.

Light atop Light refers to the five "gates" of energy.

The Houses Allah has permitted to be raised refers to people who have reincarnated to do spiritual work (avatars).

The Quran also refers to the Middle Pillar as Siraat al-mustaqiym (upright or straight path).

In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate,
the merciful.

The praise is for Allah,
Master-Teacher [Rabbi] of the Ages.
The Compassionate, the Merciful,
Master of the Day of Judgement.
Only you do we serve and only
you do we ask for help.
Guide us to the Upright Path

-- Quran, Surah 1:1-6

The Buddha advised his students to 'take the middle path.' Esoterically, his reference was to the Middle Pillar.

In magic work the Middle Pillar is created by imaging the various spheres and vibrating the Hebrew "God names" associated with them.

Gate God Name Color

Spirit Eherah (pronounced Eh-Heh-Yeh) White
Air Yod Heh Vaw Heh Eloheem Indigo

Fire Yod Heh Vaw Heh Eloah Ve-Daath Gold

Water Shaddai El-Cha: Blue

Earth Adenai Ha-Aretz Black

The God names and colors are used in magical rites to attract or banish things, events or characteristics.

Money, for example, falls under the Sun's auspices. A ritual for attracting money could include the Middle Pillar, circulation of Light, vibrating the Fire gate's God name and imaging your body bathed in golden light.

This rite would be most potent if done on a Sunday or any day during the hour of the Sun.

Attracting rituals are best performed during the waxing Moon. Banishing rituals are best performed during the waning Moon.

The chakras are energy fields that are formed by the crossing of opposite energy charges. Lunar energy is channelled through the Ida nadi and solar energy flows through the Pingala nadi. The Ida and Pingala begin at the left and right nostrils, respectively, and go up to the 3rd eye where they meet and cross, forming the ajna chakra. They then meet again at the crown and then criss-cross down the spine forming the various chakras.

Because of their winding paths, Kundalini is often called serpent power and is said to move according to the path of the serpent.

The Egyptians named these nadis (or chi meridians) Nekhebet (Ida) and Uatchet (Pingala).

In the Quran they appear in various ways, among them Dhul-garnain (Two named One), Safa and Marwa mountains and, in Surah 2:102, as "the two angels Harut and Marut" who were in Babylon.

Tower of Babel

Babel means "gate of god" and here we have the Spirit gate of the Middle Pillar.

In the Bible Story humans had decided to build a shem (spaceship) and had erected a launching tower for the purpose.

But every physical story has a spiritual meaning and every spiritual process has a material basis and application.

Esoterically the launching Tower is the Middle Pillar which launches one's consciousness to heaven (the Spirit Gate of Gate of God).

The Eloheem said that if humans accomplish building their shem nothing would be impossible for them to accomplish.

Shem also means "name" and, esoterically, building up the force of God names is what is meant.

Yahweh then decides to "come down" and "confuse their speech" and "scatter them across the face of the earth."

All religions have but two themes: consciousness and energy. They all are addressing these two fundamental realities, but because their speech is confused they compete and oppose one another rather than supporting one another.

Kundalini or Chi Confusion

Term Usage

Kundalini India
Ra Egyptian
Shakti India
Samson Nazarene
Holy Spirit Christian
Shekhem Egyptian
Sakiynah Arabian
Shechinah Hebrew
Baraka Arabian
Ruh Arabian
Ruach Hebrew
Serpentine Fire India
Serpent Power India
Chi China
Ki Sumerian
Libido Freudian
Orgone Reich

Many African systems use various names as do the Japanese, Koreans, Native Americans, Polynesians etc.

Since most don't even know that energy is being discussed they are totally incapable of relating their metaphor for energy to a seemingly different wisdom system.

Their speech is confused. When the energy is not focused it scatters throughout the body (earth).

The Fa/Peh letter is assigned to the Tower card and to the planet Mars.

On the card a lightning bolt strikes the tower, knocks off the crown and throws people out of it.

That refers to the sudden, frightening effect that kundalini can have. Often, the person is surprised by the swiftness of its ascent.

"Behold, I come quickly," says the Book of Revelation (all of whose 22 chapters are about kundalini).

The kundalini force can suddenly wipe out somskaras (thought/behaviour patterns). these are the "people" being tossed from the Tower. The crown is, of course, the crown chakra.

Yet the Tower is invariably described as an ominous, negative and that forecasts "ruin catastrophe, destruction."

Kundalini is psychosexual energy and its effect upon most people is regarded as negative.

Retention of semen was the sine qua non of ancient spiritual cultivation. Since kundalini energy invariably excites the sex drive -- leading to ejaculation if a man cannot domesticate that horny ram -- it was seen as catastrophe and ruinous.

Make no mistake, catching and controlling the kundalini empowered ejaculatory urge can be as difficult as "raising up the serpents unharmed" -- at least for men. I cannot say what the levels of difficulty are for women because orgasm doesn't deplete women of chi energy, menstruation does.

A female initiate can climax 50 times and the effect would be beneficial to her -- according to the old masters. So the sexual challenges are different.

Both male and female, however, learn to direct their orgasm to eventually experience whole body orgasms and even male multiple orgasm.

When the orgasm force is drawn to the head -- good golly, Miss Molly!

Delphonics sing!

Didn't I blow your mind this time,
Didn't I?

Orgasmic energy exploding in the brain, electrifying the glands, can be a mind blowing experience. It can bring a brief period of enlightenment. Such energy regularly "stored in heaven" can result in full enlightenment (awakening).

But the Tower of Power energy surge is also said to be fraught with danger. Some teachers warn of kundalini psychosis. I've even speculated that spontaneous human combustion might be due to incorrect activating the serpentine fire.

How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O
prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liguor: thy belly is like an
heap of wheat set about with lilies.
Thy two breasts are like young roes
that are twins.

Thy neck is a tower of ivory;
thine eyes like fishpools of Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbin:
thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon
which looketh toward Damascus.

Thine head upon thee is like Carmel,
and the hair of thine head like purple;
the King is held in the galleries.

How fair and how pleasant art
thou, O love, for delights!

This thy stature is like a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

I said, I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of the boughs thereof:
now also thy breasts shall be as clusters
of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like
apples;

And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine
for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly,
causing the lips of those that are asleep
to speak.

I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us
see if the vine flourish, whether the tender

grape appear and the pomegranates bud forth:
there will I give thee my loves.
The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates
are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old,
which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

-- Song of Solomon, 7th Chapter

Old Solomon could rap, couldn't he? Actually this song is a duet between Sheba and Solomon. It's all about kundalini, chakras, endocrine secretions and altered states of consciousness.

Much ancient literature was set to music and we miss a chunk of its impact without the accompanying music. Imagine reading the Beatles catalogue but never knowing the words were sung.

The Bhagavad-Gita is the Song of the Eternal. The Psalms are David's greatest hits. The Book of the Dead is replete with hymns to Ra, Osiris, etc.

Even the Quran is musical. It is to be chanted, sung in tarteelan , "slow, measured, rhythmic tones."

The musical quality of the ancient books brought the proper altered state of consciousness, stimulated brain centers, scientifically, to generate an effect upon the central nervous system.

No music, no funk. Just dry dead letter scripture that leaves the so-called believer on the outside looking in.

In the above Song of Solomon chapter, the navel refers to the Tan Tien or Elixir Field. ("liquor").

Lilies are to mideast systems what lotuses are to mystics in India.

In sexual-spiritual female cultivation, the breasts are softly rubbed in a circular manner to release ching chi. As chi increases one of the first observable effects is upon the brightening and clearing of the eyes ("your eyes are like the fishpools").

The purple or violet ray signifies contact with the highest spiritual vibration. The color is seen quite clearly in meditation, particularly as a result of chanting Hu, Hum or Hung. ("Hair of thy head like purple.")

When the glands are stimulated a sweet, nectar-like taste fills the mouth. The Taoists consider saliva, charged with chi, to be a nectar. This, the song describes as "the roof of thy mouth like the best wine...that goeth down sweetly."

In the depths of tantric sexual experiences the woman often falls into trance and, in that state, speaks with the wisdom of the goddess, prophesying and brining goddess wisdom. (...causing the lips of those that are asleep," i.e., in trance, "to speak.")

"Let us go into the field" refers to connecting and sharing the energies of each others Tan Tiens or Elixir Fields. Thus the lovers become as one, each knowing, experiencing and feeling what the other experiences.

Mandrakes are the Magic Mushrooms, physically, the natural plant which LSD mimics. But physical mandrakes symbolize the "natural high" that comes from energy stimulation of various glands.

I learned from the Honorable Elijah Muhammad to replace bad things with good things when you want to get people away from bad habits. So when I use to help get Delaware prisoners off dope, I showed them how to get a beautiful, healthy, natural high by breathing techniques and mild kundalini activation.

As far as I know, none of my guys went back to using drugs.

But I unwittingly provoked the rage of the 12-Step Narcotics Anonymous/Boot-camp drug program monopolists. They were furious that I didn't employ their bankrupt, failed philosophy and techniques.

That 12 Step, 28 day drug program nonsense is a billion dollar industry and its ayatollahs will fight you ferociously if you refuse to spout the party line.

It's as phony as a 3 dollar bill.

Most drug programs are run by a bunch of junkies with brief cases who are running a con-game on the world. They don't get anybody off drugs and the so-called directors are on-and-off drugs themselves.

When they finally get caught stealing the money and pimping and banging all the poor junkie girls in their programs, their out is, "I'm in recovery! I need help! I'm signing myself in another drug program."

And police and politicians fall for it. As P.T. Barnum said, "There's a sucker born every minute."

Alcoholics Anonymous and Narcotics Anonymous have become religions. And, like any religion, "true believers" don't much care if it doesn't work.

AA and NA utterly fails for at least 95% of the people who fall victim to the hustle. Any other product with so spectacular rate of failure would be shut down by the government. But AA/NA enjoys, despite the harm they do to millions, as special status as state-sponsored religions.

Chapter 119 of Psalms is subdivided into 22 sections headed by the Hebrew letters. The word Peh, in Hebrew, means mouth and the Peh section of 119 Psalms says: "I opened my mouth and panted: for I longed for thy commandments."

A special yogic breathing method is here indicated. It helps ignite the fire of kundalini which then starts up the tower of the Middle Pillar.

The Spinal Twist is the Yoga posture that corresponds with the Fa.

The Middle Pillar in the Quran

Salaat is the Arabic word for Kundalini, not prayer. The Arabic word for prayer is dua.

The movements and postures (asanas) associated with salaat are actually abbreviated versions of the yoga sun salute. They coordinate breathing and, by stretching, clear the meridians and loosen the spine. All those things facilitate salaat but are not salaat itself.

Salaat is a force, an energy, that flows through the body and the universe.

The Quranic term for the Middle Pillar is salaat al-wusta.

Guard over the salaat
and the salaat al-wusta (the middle salaat), and raise up to Allah devoutly.

-- Quran 2:238

Any negative conditioning or program that's embedded in the subconscious can (and does) get activated when salaah awakens. Thus, the initiate is told to guard over her salaah, especially the salaah (kundalini) of the Middle Pillar.

Cleaning the subconscious (Ra) of all negative programs is also called, metaphorically, "the sanctification of the Virgin Mary."

negative non-physical beings can become attracted to a person's salaah force and attach themselves to one's chakras like energy vampires.

Banishing and protective (spiritual immunization) rituals like the Lesser Banishing Ritual of the Pentagram help energy workers "guard over the salaah."

♦ The Letter Fa ?

Tower of Power

Arabic has no letter "P." The Hebrew Peh accords with the Arabic Fa (F).

In Hebrew Peh means "mouth". It corresponds with the Tower Tarot Card.

One of the most important energy channels in spiritual work is called the Middle Pillar.

The middle Pillar runs from the crown of the head to the feet. Along the path five important "gates" are formed: Spirit (crown), Air (throat), Fire (heart), Water (sex center) and Earth (feet).

Allah is the Light
of the heavens and the earth.

A metaphor of His Light is
as if there were a Pillar and
within it a Lamp.
The Lamp is enclosed in Glass.
The Glass is, as it were,
a Radiant Star lit from a Blessed Tree, an Olive,
neither of the East nor of the West
Whose oil is almost luminous
though Fire barely touched it.
Light upon Light.
Allah guides whom He wills to
His light and Allah strikes out
metaphors for the people,
and Allah knows all things.
(Lit is such a Light) in Houses
that Allah has permitted to be raised. In them is He glorified in the morning and
the evening.

-- Quran 24:34-35

The Light is the Kundalini light. The Pillar is the Middle (not eastern or western) Pillar. The Lamp represents the glands, especially the pineal. The Glass represents the Chakras.

The Blessed Olive Tree is the Tree of Life. The Oil represents the glandular secretions.

Light atop Light refers to the five "gates" of energy.

The Houses Allah has permitted to be raised refers to people who have reincarnated to do spiritual work (avatars).

The Quran also refers to the Middle Pillar as Siraat al-mustaqiym (upright or straight path).

In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate,
the merciful.

The praise is for Allah,
Master-Teacher [Rabbi] of the Ages.
The Compassionate, the Merciful,
Master of the Day of Judgement.
Only you do we serve and only
you do we ask for help.
Guide us to the Upright Path

-- Quran, Surah 1:1-6

The Buddha advised his students to 'take the middle path.' Esoterically, his reference was to the Middle Pillar.

In magic work the Middle Pillar is created by imaging the various spheres and vibrating the Hebrew "God names" associated with them.

Gate God Name Color

Spirit Eherah (pronounced Eh-Heh-Yeh) White

Air Yod Heh Vaw Heh Eloheem Indigo

Fire Yod Heh Vaw Heh Eloah Ve-Daath Gold

Water Shaddai El-Cha: Blue

Earth Adenai Ha-Aretz Black

The God names and colors are used in magical rites to attract or banish things, events or characteristics.

Money, for example, falls under the Sun's auspices. A ritual for attracting money could include the Middle Pillar, circulation of Light, vibrating the Fire gate's God name and imaging your body bathed in golden light.

This rite would be most potent if done on a Sunday or any day during the hour of the Sun.

Attracting rituals are best performed during the waxing Moon. Banishing rituals are best performed during the waning Moon.

The chakras are energy fields that are formed by the crossing of opposite energy charges. Lunar energy is channelled through the Ida nadi and solar energy flows through the Pingala nadi. The Ida and Pingala begin at the left and right nostrils, respectively, and go up to the 3rd eye where they meet and cross, forming the ajna chakra. They then meet again at the crown and then criss-cross down the spine forming the various chakras.

Because of their winding paths, Kundalini is often called serpent power and is said to move according to the path of the serpent.

The Egyptians named these nadis (or chi meridians) Nekhebet (Ida) and Uatchet (Pingala).

In the Quran they appear in various ways, among them Dhul-garnain (Two named One), Safa and Marwa mountains and, in Surah 2:102, as "the two angels Harut and Marut" who were in Babylon.

Tower of Babel

Babel means "gate of god" and here we have the Spirit gate of the Middle Pillar.

In the Bible Story humans had decided to build a shem (spaceship) and had erected a launching tower for the purpose.

But every physical story has a spiritual meaning and every spiritual process has a material basis and application.

Esoterically the launching Tower is the Middle Pillar which launches one's consciousness to heaven (the Spirit Gate of Gate of God).

The Eloheem said that if humans accomplish building their shem nothing would be impossible for them to accomplish.

Shem also means "name" and, esoterically, building up the force of God names is what is meant.

Yahweh then decides to "come down" and "confuse their speech" and "scatter them across the face of the earth."

All religions have but two themes: consciousness and energy. They all are addressing these two fundamental realities, but because their speech is confused they compete and oppose one another rather than supporting one another.

Kundalini or Chi Confusion

Term Usage

Kundalini India

Ra Egyptian

Shakti India

Samson Nazarene

Holy Spirit Christian

Shekhem Egyptian

Sakiynah Arabian

Shechinah Hebrew

Baraka Arabian

Ruh Arabian

Ruach Hebrew

Serpentine Fire India

Serpent Power India

Chi China

Ki Sumerian
Libido Freudian
Orgone Reich

Many African systems use various names as do the Japanese, Koreans, Native Americans, Polynesians etc.

Since most don't even know that energy is being discussed they are totally incapable of relating their metaphor for energy to a seemingly different wisdom system.

Their speech is confused. When the energy is not focused it scatters throughout the body (earth).

The Fa/Peh letter is assigned to the Tower card and to the planet Mars.

On the card a lightning bolt strikes the tower, knocks off the crown and throws people out of it.

That refers to the sudden, frightening effect that kundalini can have. Often, the person is surprised by the swiftness of its ascent.

"Behold, I come quickly," says the Book of Revelation (all of whose 22 chapters are about kundalini).

The kundalini force can suddenly wipe out somskaras (thought/behaviour patterns). these are the "people" being tossed from the Tower. The crown is, of course, the crown chakra.

Yet the Tower is invariably described as an ominous, negative and that forecasts "ruin catastrophe, destruction."

Kundalini is psychosexual energy and its effect upon most people is regarded as negative. Retention of semen was the sine qua non of ancient spiritual cultivation. Since kundalini energy invariably excites the sex drive -- leading to ejaculation if a man cannot domesticate that horny ram -- it was seen as catastrophe and ruinous.

Make no mistake, catching and controlling the kundalini empowered ejaculatory urge can be as difficult as "raising up the serpents unharmed" -- at least for men. I cannot say what the levels of difficulty are for women because orgasm doesn't deplete women of chi energy, menstruation does.

A female initiate can climax 50 times and the effect would be beneficial to her -- according to the old masters. So the sexual challenges are different.

Both male and female, however, learn to direct their orgasm to eventually experience whole body orgasms and even male multiple orgasm.

When the orgasm force is drawn to the head -- good golly, Miss Molly!

Delphonics sing!

Didn't I blow your mind this time,
Didn't I?

Orgasmic energy exploding in the brain, electrifying the glands, can be a mind blowing experience. It can bring a brief period of enlightenment. Such energy regularly "stored in heaven" can result in full enlightenment (awakening).

But the Tower of Power energy surge is also said to be fraught with danger. Some teachers warn of kundalini psychosis. I've even speculated that spontaneous human combustion might be due to incorrect activating the serpentine fire.

How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O
prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

Thy navel is like a round goblet, which
wanteth not liguor: thy belly is like an
heap of wheat set about with lilies.

Thy two breasts are like young roes
that are twins.

Thy neck is a tower of ivory;
thine eyes like fishpools of Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbin:
thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon
which looketh toward Damascus.

Thine head upon thee is like Carmel,
and the hair of thine head like purple;
the King is held in the galleries.

How fair and how pleasant art
thou, O love, for delights!

This thy stature is like a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

I said, I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of the boughs thereof:
now also thy breasts shall be as clusters
of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like
apples;

And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine
for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly,
causing the lips of those that are asleep
to speak.

I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us
see if the vine flourish, whether the tender
grape appear and the pomegranates bud forth:
there will I give thee my loves.

The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates
are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old,
which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

-- Song of Solomon, 7th Chapter

Old Solomon could rap, couldn't he? Actually this song is a duet between Sheba and Solomon. It's all about kundalini, chakras, endocrine secretions and altered states of consciousness.

Much ancient literature was set to music and we miss a chunk of its impact without the accompanying music. Imagine reading the Beatles catalogue but never knowing the words were sung.

The Bhagavad-Gita is the Song of the Eternal. The Psalms are David's greatest hits. The Book of the Dead is replete with hymns to Ra, Osiris, etc.

Even the Quran is musical. It is to be chanted, sung in tarteelan , "slow, measured, rhythmic tones."

The musical quality of the ancient books brought the proper altered state of consciousness, stimulated brain centers, scientifically, to generate an effect upon the central nervous system.

No music, no funk. Just dry dead letter scripture that leaves the so-called believer on the outside looking in.

In the above Song of Solomon chapter, the navel refers to the Tan Tien or Elixir Field. ("liquor").

Lilies are to mideast systems what lotuses are to mystics in India.

In sexual-spiritual female cultivation, the breasts are softly rubbed in a circular manner to release ching chi. As chi increases one of the first observable effects is upon the brightening and clearing of the eyes ("your eyes are like the fishpools").

The purple or violet ray signifies contact with the highest spiritual vibration. The color is seen quite clearly in meditation, particularly as a result of chanting Hu, Hum or Hung. ("Hair of thy head like purple.")

When the glands are stimulated a sweet, nectar-like taste fills the mouth. The Taoists consider saliva, charged with chi, to be a nectar. This, the song describes as "the roof of thy mouth like the best wine...that goeth down sweetly."

In the depths of tantric sexual experiences the woman often falls into trance and, in that state, speaks with the wisdom of the goddess, prophesying and brining goddess wisdom. (...causing the lips of those that are asleep," i.e., in trance, "to speak.")

"Let us go into the field" refers to connecting and sharing the energies of each others Tan Tiens or Elixir Fields. Thus the lovers become as one, each knowing, experiencing and feeling what the other experiences.

Mandrakes are the Magic Mushrooms, physically, the natural plant which LSD mimics. But physical mandrakes symbolize the "natural high" that comes from energy stimulation of various glands.

I learned from the Honorable Elijah Muhammad to replace bad things with good things when you want to get people away from bad habits. So when I use to help get Delaware prisoners off dope, I showed them how to get a beautiful, healthy, natural high by breathing techniques and mild kundalini activation.

As far as I know, none of my guys went back to using drugs.

But I unwittingly provoked the rage of the 12-Step Narcotics Anonymous/Boot-camp drug program monopolists. They were furious that I didn't employ their bankrupt, failed philosophy and techniques.

That 12 Step, 28 day drug program nonsense is a billion dollar industry and its ayatollahs will fight you ferociously if you refuse to spout the party line.

It's as phony as a 3 dollar bill.

Most drug programs are run by a bunch of junkies with brief cases who are running a con-game on the world. They don't get anybody off drugs and the so-called directors are on-and-off drugs themselves.

When they finally get caught stealing the money and pimping and banging all the poor junkie girls in their programs, their out is, "I'm in recovery! I need help! I'm signing myself in another drug program."

And police and politicians fall for it. As P.T. Barnum said, "There's a sucker born every minute."

Alcoholics Anonymous and Narcotics Anonymous have become religions. And, like any religion, "true believers" don't much care if it doesn't work.

AA and NA utterly fails for at least 95% of the people who fall victim to the hustle. Any other product with so spectacular rate of failure would be shut down by the government. But AA/NA enjoys, despite the harm they do to millions, as special status as state-sponsored religions.

Chapter 119 of Psalms is subdivided into 22 sections headed by the Hebrew letters. The word Peh, in Hebrew, means mouth and the Peh section of 119 Psalms says: "I opened my mouth and panted: for I longed for thy commandments."

A special yogic breathing method is here indicated. It helps ignite the fire of kundalini which then starts up the tower of the Middle Pillar.

The Spinal Twist is the Yoga posture that corresponds with the Fa.